Accents solution thru Constitution, law

President Chun Doo Hwan said it is very dangerous to try to solve problems by resorting to emergency measures.

In a meeting with cabinet members over dinner at Chong Wa Dae Thursday evening, Chun told them to try to solve all problems in accordance with the Constitution, laws and through elections.

He said reliance on emergency measures runs counter to efforts to promote democracy.

All cabinet members, he said, are urged to prevent a situation that requires a drastic solution from occurring by exercising their authority and fulfilling their responsibility.

"I hope all members of the cabinet will sacrifice themselves to forestall unfortunate incidents and create a new history," he said.

Those who are concerned only about their personal security are not favorably described by history, he said.

During this transition period, he said, people may feel an acute sense of relative
