

The Islamic countries also urged the Security Council to take the necessary measures vis-a-vis Iran for not having announced its acceptance of Resolution 598.

Support for S. Arabia

Two resolutions — one presented by Jordan and the other by Saudi Arabia — dealt with last July's Mecca through the PLO, their sole legitimate representative, their just cause to the international community."

The conference also adopted resolutions condemning Israel's build-up of nuclear arsenal and the strategic alliance between the United States and Israel.

It also called on member states which maintain relations with Israel

ASKED TO ELABORATE on Saudi Arabia's decision to limit the numbers of pilgrims to Mecca, Masri said the conference "left it up to Saudi Arabia to carry out the resolutions as it wishes."

On the recent American peace initiative, the conference chairman said that Jordan was comparing notes with Egypt and other Arab states on the proposals. He said the issue was discussed in general terms, in the context of the Arab-Israeli conflict in general.

On the Palestine question, Masri noted that the conference endorsed Palestinian rights, including the right to return and the establishment of an independent Palestinian state with Jerusalem as its capital.

On the U.S. decision to close down the PLO mission to the U.N., Masri said the PLO drafted the resolution on this subject and that the organisation was currently taking legal action against the U.S. decision.

Masri described as balanced a conference resolution on the Afghanistan problem saying that the conference supported the Soviet decision to withdraw its troops from Afghanistan.

Masri said the Palestinian uprising in the occupied territories was one of three main topics that drew the attention of conferees, who, he said, expressed their understanding and appreciation of the uprising's full implications and dimensions.

Libyan stand

The Libyan foreign minister has reiterated his country's position that the "Zionist-Arab conflict arises from the existence of a Jewish state in the area."

Jadallah Azzouz Al Talhi said the "Zionists threaten the Arab existence in the area" and that this "is evident occupation."

Aziz accused Syria of not fulfilling agreements reached in the extraordinary Arab summit held in Amman last November and rejected charges made by Syria that Iraq was mounting a "hostile media campaign" against Damascus.
